CHICAGO THE WINNER.

EASILY TAKING THE CONVENTION.
The Garden City Walks Away With the Prize Once More—June Third Declared Upon as the Eventful Date.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The Republican National Committee met at the Arlington Hotel at noon. The meeting was promptly called to order by Secretary Martin, and Senator Sabine, of Minnesota, was unanimously chosen chairman, to succeed the late Marshall Jewell. Senator Frye, of Maine, at once took the floor and spoke in favor of his proposition for a change of the basis of representation in future conventions. The Arlington was crowded with delegates from Chicago, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Saratoga and other places, waiting an opportunity to appear before the Committee to impress upon them the advantage of each city over others as the proper place to hold the convention.

At 2 p. m. the debate on the plan of representation was suspended, and the question laid over until later in the day. A resolution fixing June 3d as the date of the convention was adopted. Arguments then commenced as to the place where the convention will be held. After all the delegations from the various cities had been heard, a somewhat animated discussion was held, the general drift of which was largely in favor of Chicago. On a vote being taken, it was shown that the Garden City had the prize, it being decided on the second ballot to hold the Convention there on the date appointed, June 3. The delegations from Philadelphia and Cincinnati were especially disappointed as prior to the decision, and up to the very last moment they had been quite confident. The first ballot for location of the Convention resulted:
Chicago 14, Cincinnati 13, Indianapolis 4, Philadelphia 3, Saratoga 3.
Chicago was selected on the second ballot.

ENGLAND DENOUNCED.

Speeches by a Number of Leading Irish Nationalists.
DUBLIN, Dec. 12.—The grand banquet tendered to Mr. Charles S. Parnell, in connection with the testimonial presented, was given in the Rotunda. It was a magnificent affair, and over 600 persons sat down to dinner. The hall was decorated with the National and American colors, and the tables laden with flowers and patriotic devices. There were no less than twenty-four members of Parliament, closely identified with the Home Rule party interests, present. Charles Dawson, M. P., Lord Mayor of Dublin, presided and made an address. Many congratulatory telegrams which had been received from America and England were read amidst cheers. Mr. Michael Davitt, in an extended address, said that the Irishmen of to-day were little better than slaves, and were working out a sentence of political servitude from which their own hands alone could free them. They must look to themselves, and active or direct interference from abroad must not and could not be expected. To-night they had gathered to express their gratitude and do honor to Mr. Parnell, who was not only their leader in Parliament and at home, but only their trusted champion, but the prime minister of the will of the Irish nation (cheers and applause). Mr. Thomas Sexton, the member from Sligo, was received with cheers, and was applauded when he said Ireland's strength increased with England's growing weakness. England was not only no longer mistress of the seas, but her commerce was decreasing and her trade monopolies were being lost to her. Ireland was resolved to be free, and would be free (cheers). The Lord Mayor read an address and made the formal presentation of a check representing £28,000 of the popular subscription testimonial. The audience was very enthusiastic as Mr. Parnell appeared on the platform. He was thankful, he said, to find evidence there was so many who, like himself, sympathized with the struggling and down-trodden tenantry, whose condition was little better, and often worse, than that of the South African negroes. He sympathized even more deeply with the laborers, who were no better than slaves of slaves, and whose lives were simply one prolonged struggle for existence. To sustain an existence as a nation under such circumstances was difficult. Out of those outrageous conditions arose the National League overwhelming an oppressive landlordism. This uprising of an overriden people Parliament had chosen to call a scheme of gigantic robbery. Not only was this false, but no national movement had been made against any such odds as were against the Irish people, with equal discretion and utter absence of crime and passion. They had stifled their feelings or controlled them, and decided by the law, which has, however, not helped their wrongs. He referred briefly and forcibly to the fact that the British Government should have thought it necessary to overrun the country under surveillance of regular troops to the number of 30,000, and to make it their duty to support a police and constabulary force of 15,000. The writ of habeas corpus had been often suspended of late, and the late lamented Chief Secretary ("Buckshot") Foster had imprisoned over a thousand Irishmen without any sufficient cause. The present Coercion act was the best result of the concerted work of all England's best lawyers and statesmen, and the outcome of much study. Under it neither the life nor liberty of any man was, or could be, assured. He deliberately ridiculed the appeal of Lord Hartington to abandon the methods which had been employed to oppose English misrule. There could never be any amalgamation between the Irish party and the Liberals until after the Coercion Act had been repealed and the Ministry had abandoned its policy of forced emigration.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

Mr. Reagan's Views of Speaker Carlisle's Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Thos. Pettit, of Kentucky, has been appointed Third Clerk of the House of Representatives. In the House, Mr. Willis (Ky.) asked leave to have printed a petition, very largely signed, asking an extension of the time when whisky may be retained in bond, but the proposition was met with a prompt "I object" from Mr. White (Ky.), whose hostility to the whisky men was so frequently manifested in the last Congress. The American Consul at Cairo reports to the State Department that the official statistics of the cholera epidemic in Egypt show that during the four months the epidemic raged, there were about 50,000 deaths, but he thinks that an accurate statement would increase it to 70,000.

Representative Reagan, of Texas, who will probably be made Chairman of the Committee on Commerce, said to a reporter that he thought the wrangle over the chairmanship of the Appropriation Committee will result in the selection of Mr. Randall. He thought the selection of Mr. Randall would give better general satisfaction for personal, if not for business reasons. Mr. Reagan had a talk with Speaker Carlisle about the announcement of the committee, and he was of the opinion that they will not be made up before the 20th inst.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Congressman Hurd, of Ohio, will on Monday next introduce a resolution investigating the office of the Attorney General.

Delegations and representatives from Indiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York are in town for the purpose of urging upon the members of the National Republican Committee, which meets here to-day, the claims of Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Chattanooga, N. Y., as suitable places to hold the National Convention next summer. It is the impression that either Indianapolis or Philadelphia will be selected.

A meeting of the National Union League will be held here tomorrow. The object is to promote the interests of the Republican party. General J. S. Negley, of Pittsburgh, is the President.

TARIFF RUMORS.

What Certain Congressmen Say of Them.
A story was circulated to the effect that Speaker Carlisle had requested Representative Morrison, (Ill.), to select a majority of the House such members as he thought would best represent his, Carlisle's, tariff views in the committee on Ways and Means, and that Mr. Morrison had been embarrassed in his first effort in that direction by the declination of Hon. Randolph Tucker, (Va.), to serve on the committee. It was stated that Mr. Tucker's principal objection was to serving as "second fiddle" to Morrison. In conversation on the subject Mr. Tucker authorized the denial of the story, saying: "I have heard the rumor but there is nothing in it, and you can say that there will not be the least difficulty in engaging the Ways and Means Committee. As to the statement that I will not serve as 'second fiddle' to Mr. Morrison, it is all both. Whether or not I will act as a member of the Committee on Ways and Means is a matter respecting which I have not talked, and at this time cannot do so."

The following self-explanatory conversation subsequently occurred between Representative Rules, a prominent Republican Member from Indiana, and a reporter: "Have you heard anything of the report that the Republican Members are joining certain Democratic Members for the purpose of hurrying the passage of a bill to abolish the present internal revenue laws, thereby reducing the income tax to a minimum and of revision of the tariff?" "Oh, yes, the matter has come to me, there is such a scheme on foot." "Will it succeed?" "I think not. I presume a large number of the Democratic Members could be enlisted, but I don't think that very many Republicans will favor it—that is, not enough to give it a majority in the House. There is a large element of Democratic members who would probably prefer to abolish the internal revenue system to revising the tariff, but I hardly think there is a majority, even with Republicans who would prefer that to a tariff revision."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—At the Cabinet meeting all the members of the Cabinet were present except Secretary Folger, who is still indisposed. The O'Donnell case was brought up and considered. Secretary Frelinghuysen some days ago instructed Minister Lowell to recognize O'Donnell's citizenship, and further instructions have been telegraphed him. State Department officials decline at present to disclose the nature of these later instructions.

A Report Denied.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 12.—President Watrous emphatically denied the pooling arrangement between the Consolidated road and the New York and New England roads, as published in yesterday's Associated Press reports. All income over expenses and dividends of the road will be applied to improvement on the road, and it would not improve its case for the sake of controlling the New York and New England road.

Terrible Shooting Affray.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 12.—Reports from Fields' still house, on the Cumberland River, say that last week four men became drunk there and engaged in a fight. W. H. Fields separated them and ordered the party to leave, which they refused to do. Fields then drew a pistol and shot all of them. Matthew Knight was killed instantly, Jesse Sargent died next day, Maj. Say and John Jenkins can not recover.

Boston Municipal Election.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—The annual municipal election occurred in this city Tuesday and has resulted in the election of General August P. Martin, Citizens' and Republican candidate for Mayor, over Alderman Hugh O'Brien, Democratic candidate, by about 1,500 majority in a total vote of nearly 54,000, which is a gain of 11,000 over the vote of 1882.

The Anti-Jew Troubles.

PESTH, Dec. 12.—The Government has been defeated in its first serious effort to reconcile the existing differences between the Jews and Christians. The Upper House of Parliament has defeated the Government bill legalizing marriages between Jews and Christians. The bitter race feeling is increasing rather than lessening.

War Vessels for Chinese Waters.

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—The German Government has ordered the Albatross, now attached to the squadron in American waters, to proceed at once to Canton and join the fleet which is gathering in case it should be needed to protect German residents, or colonies, during the probable war between France and China.

Petitioning for O'Donnell.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Radical clubs of London are signing the memorial which is being circulated soliciting the Home Secretary to grant a respite to O'Donnell.

Indian Native Troops for Egypt.

VIENNA, Dec. 12.—It is reported here that Lord Hartington, the English Secretary for India, has ordered six regiments of native troops to prepare to sail for Egypt.

THE IRISH NATIONALISTS.

THE CONVENTION IN MILWAUKEE.
A Large Number of Distinguished Delegates From All Points of the Northwest Present—Programme of the Proceedings.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 12.—The State Convention of Irish Nationalists opened at the Academy of Music Wednesday morning. The call for the Convention was issued five weeks ago for the purpose of forming a State branch of the National League, also for the consideration of such steps as may result in the general advancement of the Nationalists throughout the Northwest. Delegates began arriving Sunday. Over 300 are now in town, representing nearly every hamlet and village in the State. Large numbers of Catholic clergymen are also here and more are coming on the morning trains. The headquarters of the visiting delegates were opened at the Sheridan Guard Armory. Among the places represented by more than one delegate and by priests are Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Menasha, Racine, La Crosse, Appleton and Peshigo, Minnesota, Dakota and Illinois.

The Convention was formally called to order by Mr. Furlong, President of the Milwaukee League, who read a letter from Joseph S. Donnelly, State Executive of the National League, regretting his absence on account of injuries sustained by falling from his horse. Among those on the platform were Alexander Sullivan, President of the National League; ex-Congressman Hynes, Father Cleary, "the orator priest," Father Ryan, "the poet priest," Temporary organization was effected. Committees were appointed on Permanent Organization, Credentials and Business, which will soon report. The Convention will last two days, winding up with a grand reception and ball.

THE CROPS.

December Report of the Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—The December crop returns issued from the Department of Agriculture report the season for cotton picking since the occurrence of frosts, in the gathering of the cotton crop, quite favorable. The local estimates of product have not been diminished, and the tone of comment has been comparatively hopeful. The indications of the Department returns favor a production of about thirteen per cent. from the crop last year. This report points to a crop of about 6,000,000 bales. It is possible the cotton movement of this year may pass that limit.

The returns of corn are more conservative than those of October and November, from the injury to soft corn by warm, moist weather. North of the fortieth parallel the corn that has been cribbed is in a worse condition than for many years. The portion of unmerchantable corn is, therefore, large. The final estimate of quantity produced will fall a few millions short of the indications of previous returns, or twenty bushels per acre. This relates only to quantity and makes no discount for inferior quality, which increases the practical shortage. The losses from packing in masses, or injury of soft corn from mild and wet weather, are treated as after-harvest considerations. An investigation will be made of the extent of such injury.

The wheat aggregate slightly exceeds 400,000,000 bushels. The oat crop is about four per cent larger than that of last year, and exceeds 500,000,000 bushels. The yield of rye and barley is a little less than in 1882, and buckwheat is reduced more than one-third.

The New Railroad Arrangement.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The announcement by Manager S. S. Merrill, of the Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, that his road would enter any pool agreement on Omaha business which could not include all the roads in the Iowa trunk association, has placed an entirely different appearance on that of a few days ago. Formal notice was given on the street of the consummation of the new alliance, and Mr. Wadsworth, of the St. Paul Road, stated that the Rock Island and St. Paul had formed a new pool in Iowa business, owing to the dissolution of the old pool, and that the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and North-west could come in if they accepted the percentage. What the percentage was Mr. Wadsworth declined to say. As for the Union Pacific's share, Mr. Wadsworth stated the best legal advice in the country agreed that its action was perfectly legal. The Northwest people decline to outline their future policy until they are informed of the terms of the alliance. The impression on the street is that the new deal will result disastrously to the roads both east and west of the Missouri River.

The Dry Goods Trade.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—As a whole the dry goods trade has been quiet the past week, but there was a freer movement in cotton fabrics from first hands. Several of the most popular makes of bleached cotton were reduced to low prices to close out, and large sales of a few leading styles were made to jobbers and the shirt trade, but the volume of business done in this was hardly up to expectations, and by no means encouraging to manufacturers. Jobbers are aware too many goods are being made, and are more or less apathetic, under the belief they will find difficulty in stocking up at present prices. The jobbing trade was dull, but a fair distribution of goods was made by most of the principal houses, while heavy winter fabrics, such as woolsens, flannels, blankets, cloaks and underwear were mostly quiet. Holiday goods continue active in both first and second hands, though it cannot be denied the demand lacked the spirit of former years.

BASE BALL.

Meeting of the American Association in Cincinnati.
CINCINNATI, Dec. 12.—The Board of Directors of the American Base Ball Association met at the Grand Hotel yesterday and decided to award the championship pennant for 1883 to the Athletics, and will so report to the convention to be held to-day. Nearly all the delegates have arrived and were present at the preliminary meeting at night. Prominent among those present were H. D. McKnight, President of Pittsburgh; Louis Simmons and William Sharzing, Philadelphia; C. Vanderhaeghe, Jr., St. Louis; W. L. Jackson, Jr., Louisville; W. S. Appleton, New York; M. A. Myer, Chicago; President Moxley and Secretary Hollingsworth, of the Washington, D. C. Club; Daniel O'Leary, of Indianapolis. Five new clubs expect to enter the Association; the Indianapolis, Toledo, Brooklyn, Washington, and Richmond, Va.

THE TYNG SCANDAL.

Milwaukee Incendiary Fists Caused by a Gang of Boys.
MILWAUKEE, Dec. 12.—The confession of the four youthful fire bugs shows that their only object in destroying thousands of dollars worth of property was to see the fun. The boys' families are all respectable and of some prominence, besides that resulting from their youngest members. Beanie West is the son of Colonel F. H. West, the commission merchant, and is only fifteen years old. Joe Moffet is the son of a marble sculptor and is very precocious for fourteen years. He said to-day: "We didn't have any particular object and there wasn't any bloody dagger business about it. We were only banded together to have some fun. When we saw in the papers that Pinkerton's detectives were working us up, we pulled out." Moffet was the leader of the quartette. The reward of $250 offered by the Mayor will probably be paid Wm. Rosenbaum, brother-in-law of Police Lieutenant Janssen, and known as "Billy the Baker," it being through Rosenbaum's revelations that the boys were arrested.

Vanderbilt's Blow-Out.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The great ball was duly given by William H. Vanderbilt at his residence on Fifth avenue. The preparations were in progress for weeks past, and the decorations were the most costly ever seen in this city. A large awning extended from the curbstone to the main entrance, and the sidewalk and steps were richly carpeted. Rare and costly flowers were everywhere displayed in profusion, and the walls of the ball and dining rooms were hung with light red velvet, embroidered with leaves in neutral colors. Over 1,500 invitations were issued, and the guests, who began to arrive soon after nine o'clock, were received by Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt, assisted by other members of the family. As it was a full dress and not a costume ball, the scene was not so picturesque as at Wm. K. Vanderbilt's famous masquerade of last winter. Dancing began at ten o'clock, and a sumptuous supper by Delmonico was served during the evening.

English Newspapers Denouncing Parnell.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The Standard says that Parnell is enabled to be a leader because his followers have estranged themselves from all that is best in the old Irish patriotism and have no other course left than to adopt his teachings. Surely he must feel some compunction and shame at having been the most prominent person in attendance at a banquet where the Queen was waltzing and gradually insulted. The Telegraph says the Government must take immediate steps to reach Parnell that his defiance will not be further tolerated. The Daily News believes that Mr. Parnell honestly desires to act for Ireland's good, but is willing to resort to anything to win. He may possibly yet be able to redeem his character.

Fight and Panic in an Opera House.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 12.—A panic was caused in the Middletown Opera House by a fight between two negro scene shifters on the stage. One rushed at the other with a razor, shouting that he would cut him to pieces. The other drew a revolver and fired full in his assailant's face, but the pistol happened to contain a blank. Ignorant of this, the audience were greatly frightened. Several persons were hurt in the rush for the door. Many ladies fainted before the men were separated by the police.

Depression in the Coal Trade.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12.—The announcement is made that all the coal mines along the Monongahela will suspend indefinitely this week, owing to the depression in the coal trade. In the four pools there are seventy-five pits and if they close 6,000 men will be thrown out. The depression is the result of unseasonable weather and overstocked market. Miners are much depressed over the unfavorable outlook.

Bell Hanged.

MACON, Miss., Dec. 12.—Norris Bell, colored, was executed in the jail here at 10 o'clock for the murder of his wife last August. Governor Lowry telegraphed our Sheriff that the sentence of Sandy Fountain, for the murder of Andy Ballard, was commuted to imprisonment for life. There are but few people in town and no excitement. Bell seemed perfectly indifferent to his fate.

They Finished Him.

CLINTON, Miss., Dec. 12.—The negro who assaulted a young white girl near Jackson last Friday, and who was pursued and shot, and left for dead, on Sunday, was in a fit way to recover, when a body of enraged citizens took him from his house last night and hanged him to the nearest tree.

Employees Accept a Reduction.

TROY, N. Y., Dec. 12.—The fifteen hundred employees of the Burden Iron Company agreed to continue work at ten or twelve per cent reduction of pay, after listening to the speeches by the proprietors explaining that otherwise the mill would have to be shut down.

Counterfeits Settled.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—In the United States Court Henry Fligg and Harvey Williams, convicted of manufacturing counterfeit dollars, were sentenced to six months; Ed McCarey, for passing bad coin, got two years; Charles Cook and Levi Searing, for manufacturing bogus half dollars, got one year each.

They Were Not Lynched.

CENTRAL STATION, W. Va., Dec. 12.—The report that vigilants had hung the Kennedy murderers is untrue. The Sheriff removed the prisoners by special train to Clarksburg early yesterday morning, where their safety is assured.

Egyptian War.

CAIRO, Dec. 12.—A dispatch just received states that the Governor of Khartoum has returned to Khartoum, bringing with him garrisons of Duss and Shoti. It is also stated that El Mahdi is preparing to dispatch ten thousand troops to Darfur.

Stirring Up the President.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—At the request of the delegation of Irish citizens headed by Patrick W. Dunne, Collector Spaulding telegraphed the President urging him to use immediate efforts to secure the reprieve of O'Donnell.

Condition of the River.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12.—Pittsburg, 4 feet 9 inches and falling; Oil City, 4 feet 5 inches and stationary; Farkers, 3 feet and falling; Lock Number Four, 6 feet 11 inches and stationary; Rice's Landing, 5 feet and stationary.

Talk in Chicago About the Railroad War.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Railroad officials are all at sea over the reported signing in New York of the tripartite agreement between the Union Pacific, Rock Island, and St. Paul roads. Commissioner Midway, of the Iowa Pool, read the dispatch to the effect that the agreement had been signed, and said it was contrary to his advice. He said the report that the Rock Island had given official notice of its withdrawal from the Iowa Pool was incorrect. The meeting of the pool representatives has been postponed until next Tuesday. There is great anxiety to know what the specifications in the agreement are. The combinations in the above three roads must mean war. It means a fight with the Northwestern and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, and what the end will be, except a general demoralization of freight and passenger rates, no one seems to know. The agreement undoubtedly means that the roads which are a party to it hold the upper hand, and while the door is left open for the other roads to come in, they can only do so by submitting to the dictatorial power of the Union Pacific, the Rock Island and St. Paul.

STRAYING FROM PIOUS PATHS.

Oberlin College Students Become an Organized Band of Thieves.
CLEVELAND, Dec. 12.—An organized band of thieves have been discovered among the students of Oberlin College. Four have made confession, implicating numbers of others in petty thefts at the village stores. The plan was for several students to go into a store and, while some occupied the attention of the proprietors, others pilfered shoes, fancy goods, stationery, etc., and the goods were packed in trunks, ready to be taken away by the boys, who intended to run away from college. Some of the youths belong to well-known and respected families. Two ring-leaders will probably be sent to the Workhouse, and the others fined and expelled.

An Awful Act of Brutality.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12.—The Sherman City, of Dallas, from Balize, Honduras, brings intelligence of a shocking act of barbarity, perpetrated upon religious superstition, in the State of Yucatan. A poor Indian woman was accused of practicing witchcraft, and without even the mockery of a trial, was taken to the plaza, where the bull fights are held at Santa Clara, a town of Yucatan, where she was tied to a post and most barbarously hacked to pieces with machetes. The authorities paid no attention to the matter, and there was no one to question the propriety of the act of the fanatical mob.

A Bloody Election Riot.

GREENVILLE, Miss., Dec. 12.—There has been considerable excitement here for the last month on account of the municipal elections. Leland and Shaw headed the two tickets for the Mayoralty, and each had strong and determined supporters. It resulted Monday night in a riot. As is usual on such occasions, pistols were drawn and the shooting commenced. Sam Finlay, a white man, was seriously injured, and three negroes shot. One named Hanes, was killed outright, one is expected to die, and the other slightly injured. The shooting, however, though generally deplored, created the bitterest feelings, and

One Hundred Dollars Given Away.
To all whom it may concern: The tobacco dealers of Ripley, O., and vicinity, desiring to aid the Monumental Fair Committee to raise funds to erect a monument, in honor of deceased Union soldiers, at Ripley, Ohio, have raised a fund of $100 which will be given in premiums on leaf tobacco as follows:

FINE CUTTING TOBACCO.
First premium.....$25
Second premium.....15
Third premium.....10

PLUG FILLER.
First premium.....$25
Second premium.....15
Third premium.....10

The above premiums are confined to the Brown county, O., and Mason county, Ky., districts. Each sample is to contain not less than five pounds of tobacco. All samples must be exhibited in the name of the producers, and must be the growth of 1883. Not more than one sample from the same crop can be shown in any one class.

All samples entered shall become the property of the Monumental Fair Committee, of Ripley, O., and be sold for the benefit of the soldiers' monument fund of said place.

All samples must be sent in on or before the first Saturday of January, 1884, (being the fifth day of the month), and all entries shall close at 12 o'clock m., on that day, and the premiums will be awarded on the afternoon of said day, and then the tobacco will be offered for sale at the Fair Hall (Linn Warehouse), on said day.

M. L. Kirkpatrick, G. F. Young and A. R. Richardson are a committee to receive the tobacco, and all samples sent to the committee will be properly cared for.

The premiums are liberal and will be paid in gold to the parties to whom they may be awarded.

As the object for which the tobacco is to be donated is a worthy one it is hoped that a large number of samples may be placed on exhibition, and the parties who may be successful will be well paid for their trouble; and if not successful they can have the honor of assisting in the noble work of erecting a monument to perpetuate the memory of deceased Union soldiers.

No fee charged for entering tobacco in either class.
We hope each of our farmers will make an entry in each class.

DANGER FROM ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The Electric Current Heating Wire to White Heat—Death in the Unseen Bolt.

[Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.]
Beware of the electric light wire as you would of the jobber's work. One is just as mysteriously terrible as the other. "John," the janitor and champion wrestler of the gymnasium, got an electric scare the other day that he has not yet recovered from. It was during the rainy spell. In the midst of one of the heaviest showers he was seized with astonishment on seeing that the electric light wire running from Boutillier's roof at the rear into the gymnasium was on fire, as he expressed it. A telephone message for help was at once sent to the office of the Brush Electric Light company, and in the meantime John undertook to drown out the fire. He got on the roof, and standing three feet from the wire, which was in a white heat, he ladled a cup of water from a pail and threw it upon the radiant metal. There was a "sizz," and John averts that some of the water splashed on his arm, sending a shock through him that would have laid out any less athletic individual. He then moved three feet farther back, and from there played fireman. There really appeared imminent danger of the roof catching fire, as the wire, near where it was heated, passed through the wooden frame of a skylight. When the expert from the Brush company arrived, he donned a pair of rubber gloves, and standing on a dry board he cut the wire in two.

The electric light people affect to think little of such an occurrence, but several scientific people, to whose attention it has been brought, say that it is but a warning of a terrible accident that will one day happen. The workmen who came to the relief of John at the gymnasium say that the wire got heated because of striking against a piece of tin, thus forming a "ground." He admits that had the wood been wet—thus making a good conductor—a fire would probably have occurred. The officials of the Brush Electric Light company claim that they cover their wires with the best insulating material known, but outside electricians say that the insulation is exceedingly poor and that the least rain affects it.

Such an enormous current is employed to generate the Brush electric light that to pass it through the human body means death as instantly as by heaven's bolt. It will be remembered that two weeks ago the superintendent of the company at Dayton—who, of course, was thoroughly posted as to the terrible danger—was killed as by a flash in taking hold of a wire. He was fixing a lamp, and to save it from falling he thoughtlessly grabbed the wire. It had been raining, and the current passed right through him.

The firemen are more afraid of the electric light wires than they are of fire itself. So far the accidents that have happened in this line in Cincinnati, while they have been startling, have not been fatal. It has often happened that an electric light wire in crossing a telephone wire has formed a connection in wet weather, resulting in melting the machinery of either the instrument at the subscriber's or at the exchange—sometimes both. An accident of this kind happened a few days ago on Race street, causing the subscriber of the telephone to call out the fire department. What would have happened had that current, which was sufficient to melt brass, got inside a man's ear? Frequently the attention of passers-by is attracted to a spark emitted from one of the electric light wires running across Fifth and Vine streets.

He Waxed Her Fa.
[Chicago Tribune.]

A young woman went to the station to meet her father. As the train came in she saw a middle-aged man who resembled her parental relative, and she rushed into his arms, huddled down on his bosom, kissed him on the mouth, the ear, the chin, and all over his patent celluloid. It was not her father, but a middle-aged traveler for a tobacco house. He took a long breath, and looked around at some other travelers and winked, as much as to say: "O, I'm such a snail!" Of course the scene could not last forever, though he wished it could.

After a spasmodic hug she looked up in his face and shrieked, "You are not my pa!" He said she was right.

She asked his pardon, and he told her not to mention it.

"We public men should always hold ourselves in readiness to support those who need it."

She smiled a sweet, sad, blushing smile, and went out into the wide world, while the traveler walked to the hotel with the others. They asked him if it didn't make him feel ashamed to have such a mistake made, and he said no, it was all right. He said of course it might look queer, but those things occurred very often with him, as it would occur with any fine looking man. Besides, the girl probably enjoyed it.

Then they asked him why he did not wear his diamond breastpin on such trying occasions. He looked at his shirt front, and it was gone. While he had been allowing her to play the daughter she had burglarized his shirt.

He fainted, and when they brought him to he said: "Tell my family I died with my face to the foe."

The Emma Bond Case.
HILLSBORO, Ill., Dec. 12.—Great difficulty is experienced in securing jurors for the trial of John Montgomery, Lee Pettis, and Emanuel Clements, charged with committing outrage upon Miss Emma Bond. The principal witnesses for the prosecution have arrived. The Court overruled a motion by the defense for a separate trial for Pettis and Clements, as Montgomery's wife was a material witness in proving an alibi for him, but she would not be allowed to testify for, or against her husband.

Theological and Family Celebration.
CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 12.—On Thursday morning of this week the pulpit, which has been sent from Rome by Pope Leo XIII. by a special messenger, will be conferred upon Archbishop-elect Elder in the Cathedral. It will be made the occasion of an unusual religious ceremonial. It will also be the occasion of a family reunion. The six brothers of the Archbishop, who have not been together for fifty years, will meet and celebrate their reunion.

A Terrible Death.
HAYANA, Ill., Dec. 12.—Miss Edith Sisney was watching beside the sick bed of her father yesterday, when, falling asleep from exhaustion, her clothes caught fire from the stove. Awakening in agony she rushed screaming into the street, but died before the flames were extinguished.

The New Jersey Court of Pardons.
After an hour's deliberation, refused to commute the death sentence of James P. Graves, who killed Eddie Boden, the lamp lighter, in Newark two years ago. He will be executed with Robert Martin, the wife and child murderer, January 3d. Sheriff Wright has been notified officially to complete the preparations for the double execution.
